Western Iowa Tech Community College
Acceptance of Undergraduate Credits in Transfer to The University of South Dakota from Western Iowa Tech Community College

If students have completed courses at Western Iowa Tech Community College that they believe to be equivalent to specific required business courses at USD, they may appeal the transfer process. The appeal does not begin until the student is enrolled in classes at USD. The Student Services Center in the School of Business will assist the student with the appeal. The appeal requires that the student submit a RED FORM and accompanying documentation including a syllabus with detailed chapter coverage, past examinations, papers written, and other classroom evidence for review by a faculty member teaching the challenged course. Validation through testing and/or topical conversation with faculty members may also be required.
