Re: Iowa Plumbing and Mechanical Systems Board Recognition of Western Iowa Tech Community College Air Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Diploma Program

Stuart Crine

Dear Mr. Koontz:

Mickey Gage

I am pleased to let you know that pursuant to Iowa Plumbing and Mechanical Systems Board action at its September 20, 2011 meeting, the Board recognizes Western Iowa Tech Community College Air Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Diploma Program as being equivalent educational training to a North American Technician Excellence, Inc. certification and Service Technician Associate degree under Iowa Administrative Code r. 641-29.2(7)(b)(1) and (2).

Ron Masters

Dennis Molden

Therefore, any person possessing a Western Iowa Tech Community College Air Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration diploma will be deemed to have demonstrated the required educational training to qualify for a Board issued Service Technician HVAC Specialty License. If Western Iowa Tech Community College Air Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Diploma Program deviates from the information you provided to the Board, Western Iowa Tech Community College must notify our office by mail or phone (1-866-280-1521).

Susan Salsman

Ken Sharp

Congratulations on attaining recognition of the Air Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Diploma program and training.

Brita Van Horne

Sincerely,

Cynthia Houlson, Executive Officer
Plumbing and Mechanical Systems Board
